

“Chenille-It” Pillow December 3, 2025

Supply List:

- Sewing Machine, power cord, foot control
- Universal sewing foot
- Invisible Zipper foot or regular zipper foot
- Walking foot (optional)
- One package of 5/8” Chenille-it (White for snowflake) _adding a layer of 3/8” white on top of the wider is great
- Piecing thread to match the chenille-it
- Regular bobbin to match top thread
- Thread to coordinate with background fabric, bobbin to match
- Two 18” square of quilted fabric (pillow front & back)
- 22” invisible zipper
- Chenille brush
- Chenille-It “Flurries” pattern
- 18” pillow form
- Sewing Notions: 6.5” square ruler; disappearing marker, scissors, pins, embroidery tape, seam ripper, etc.

This is a good project to get acquainted with using the chenille-it product. There are many chenille-it patterns. This pattern does use a bottom invisible zipper but if you have another method you would like to use for the back of the pillow, that is okay with me. I am flexible.
